Bay school board hearing conducted in closed session

BY DENA BISNETTE
 The Bay St. Louis-Waveland School District Board has held an executive session hearing for a teacher who received a notice of nonreemployment.

The board met Thursday night and immediately went into executive session for a discussion of personnel that lasted about an hour, then went back into closed session for the hearing.

Board Attorney Lucien Gex said a

Highway 603 accidents injure six

BY DENA BISNETTE
 Six people have been injured in two Friday accidents on Highway 603.

Five people were injured in a two-vehicle collision at about 2 p.m. near Bayou LaCrosse Bridge and one was injured in a one-car accident at about 2 p.m. at Kiln, State Trooper Houston Dorr said.

The two-vehicle accident occurred at the driveway of Anchor Inn next to Bayou LaCrosse bridge. All five people involved were injured and were taken to Hancock Medical Center by Mobile Medical Ambulance service.

According to Dorr, Sandi Trosclair of Metairie, La., driver of a red Toyota, suffered leg and hand injuries. With her were two passengers, Kimberly Mueller and Julie Yeager, both also of Metairie.

The second vehicle involved was a 1984 Dodge van, driven by Vincent Liberto III and carrying one passenger, Joseph Bertucci Jr. Both were also from Metairie.

Dorr said witnesses told him that the van, headed north, put on a blinker light indicating a right turn, then changed the signal to indicate a left turn and turned in front of the southbound Toyota.

Bay man injured in one-car accident

BY DENA BISNETTE
 A Bay St. Louis man has been injured in a one-vehicle accident in Henderson Point.

According to State Trooper Houston Dorr, Albert Ashworth of 243 Sycamore Street was injured when his 1973 Dodge left US-90 in Henderson Point, went through a fence at Village Condominiums and hit a pump, then collided with a tree.

Dorr said Ashworth stated that another vehicle has hit the side of his car, which was headed east on US-90, but there was no second vehicle on the scene when the state trooper arrived.

The accident is still under investigation.

The two vehicles then collided in the southbound lane, according to the trooper.

Others are missing: Dorr said he was unable to locate Michael Freeman and James Varnell and by Hancock County Sheriff's Department deputies including Leo Ladner and Albert Blebl.

Dorr said the road was blocked for about 90 minutes.

James Thigpen of Kiln was injured in the afternoon accident and was taken to Hancock Medical Center by a family member.

According to Dorr, the accident took place in front of D&K Quick Stop near the Kiln caution light.

Thigpen, headed north on 603, apparently braked for a vehicle ahead of him that slowed to make a turn. The brakes on Thigpen's 1972 Oldsmobile apparently did not hold and the car veered off road, hitting a post and a gas pump, the trooper said.

The accident is still under investigation, but charges against Thigpen include driving on a suspended license, improper equipment, no tag and no inspection sticker, Dorr stated.

In Memory of MYRTLE WARNER

and BOYD

When day is done a figure turns and says a last goodbye. Although we cannot understand where they must go or why.

But as they leave our sorrow and our sad tears far behind, They must move ahead to seek the peace that every soul must find.

For now they sail a different ship upon a different sea. A voyage filled with love and hope and new discovery.

And when the journey brings them to that distant lighted shore, They'll be greeted by the outstretched arms of those who've gone before.

And people they have known and loved and voices from the past Will be singing out the welcome news that they are home at last.

In our hearts always, Daughters, Grandchildren and Great-Grandchildren

If you are looking for something to do this afternoon, you may want to see The Royal Lipizzan Stallions of Austria perform at the Hancock County Fairgrounds on Longfellow Drive.

The event is sponsored by the Hancock County Exchange Club and is scheduled for 2:30 p.m.

Tickets will be available at the gate. Proceeds made by the Exchange Club will be used for community projects.

We realize many of you may be traveling this Easter weekend, so please drive carefully.

It appears we are going to have many visitors in the area as the roads are already heavy with traffic.

This will mean there will be a big surge of traffic this afternoon with many folks returning home.

Persons traveling may want to leave a little earlier in order to compensate for the extra traffic.

Have a safe holiday.

Many of our local soccer teams will be traveling to Clinton to participate in the state championships the first week of May.

Congratulations are in order for all soccer team players of the area, even those who will not compete in the the state championship games.

Our local soccer programs appear to be improving each year, and a lot of credit has to go to the coaches and managers who dedicate so much of their time to our youth.

We wish every team well in the state championships.

THE SPRING BUDGET GAMES

Not to be outdone by the Cherry Blossom Festival, the House of Representatives held its own annual rite of spring last week known as the Spring Budget Games. That is our annual dance around the Mace-Pole in the House chamber in pursuit of that elusive budget.

True to form, the choreographed dance was replete with all sorts of cutsey side-steps and leaps of fancy. But what we captured in our pursuit was a farce. It reminded me of the story about the eggs and bacon for breakfast. The chicken just makes a "statement" when it produces the eggs, but the hog makes a "commitment" when it produces the bacon on the plate.

Now the analogy is this: the 1988 budget resolution passed by the House is just a statement. It says, we wish that deficits would go away, but we do not really mean it. In fact, we guarantee it will not happen, because we have no enforcement mechanisms in this budget resolution. There's no bacon! There's no commitment!

During the consideration of the budget, I backed a package of amendments which would have made that commitment by forcing the Congress to enforce its budget numbers and make this budget stick for the rest of the year. The majority in the House, however, would not even agree to let the amendments be considered.

We have had budget resolutions in the last few years that have not been enforced. Throughout the two years of the 99th Congress, any time the budget resolution got in the Congress' way, it just drop-kicked it - not once, but 106 times. That was the number of times the Congress waived the budget resolution to bust the budget. In fact, the Congress has busted its own budget resolutions since 1981 to the tune of $146.25 billion.

This time the Congress does not even know what the 1988 budget resolution does. The Congressional Budget Office, that great nonpartisan office in Washington, could not even provide an independent estimate of the budget numbers, as it traditionally does, for lack of sufficient information provided by the Budget Committee about its budget.

The 1988 budget resolution is pure bologna, and we ought to slice it just like the bologna that it is. We should not try to convince the American people that it is at all serious.

The Congress can do better, and the American people deserve more than $18 billion in taxes, a devastated defense and cuts in domestic programs that help produce jobs - all of which we unfortunately do know for a fact are contained in this budget.

It's time the Congress found a new choreographer of its budget dance.

REPORT TO MISSISSIPPIANS

HOMEPORT IN PASCAGOULA SIGNALS MAJOR ACHIEVEMENT

The recent signing of an agreement between the Navy and officials in Mississippi to establish a homeport in Pascagoula was a significant development for our state. With construction for the port set to begin as early as October this year, the project serves as a demonstration of how Mississippians working together can achieve great success.

Initial plans call for the Navy to base two new destroyers and two new guided missile cruisers in Pascagoula. Approximately 2,142 military and civilian employees will be involved with an estimated $64.8 million in wages and salaries by 1995. Mississippi stands to gain an estimated $96 million in sales tax for the state general fund over a 20-year period. There is no doubt that the Navy port will be beneficial for our state's economy.

The Pascagoula area economy is already reaping benefits from this important project. The Navy expects to spend about $50 million developing 181 acres of state-owned land on Singing River Island. The state has contributed $34.5 million, including $22.5 million in general economic development bonds for the homeport itself, and $12 million in state money for construction of a causeway to the island. Voters in Pascagoula have approved a $5.7 million bond issue as their share of the causeway.

The homeporting project is, without a doubt, a result of the efforts of many people. To reach the point where the signing of the agreement was possible took work on the part of local, state and federal officials. Most important was the effort put forward by the local people who banded together to make a new Navy port in Pascagoula a reality.

Our entire state earned a lot of praise and admiration during the process of reaching the agreement to establish a homeport on the Mississippi Gulf Coast. The Secretary of the Navy and many of my colleagues in the Senate have commented favorably on the enthusiasm evident in Pascagoula's efforts to secure the new port. There was a lot of intense competition for basing these new ships and providing a home for the crew, and it is very significant indeed that our state was successful in winning a big part in the new basing plan.

To be sure, the battle in Congress to win approval for the overall homeporting plan put forward by the Navy was severe. It helped a lot to be able to point to the willingness of the local community to support establishment of the new bases. No community made a better demonstration of their support and enthusiasm than Pascagoula.

As a long-time advocate of a strong defense, I'm proud of the new role that Mississippi will play in our future naval defense strategy. But I'm even more proud of the way Mississippians have proven themselves through this achievement. I hope this victory will be duplicated in all parts of our state in various ways as the local people pull together to attract new jobs. Not every community can provide a port for Navy ships, but all have special attributes that can be used to attract new development.

United States Senator

Thad Cochran

Senator Thad Cochran (R-Miss.) has a third of new committee position during the 100th Congress.

The Senator, now in his ninth year in the Senate, also retains two important committee assignments and has been re-elected to a leadership post by his Republican colleagues.

Senator Cochran this year joined the Senate Labor and Human Resources Committee, which has jurisdiction and oversight over a wide range of federal programs and legislation, including those involving aging, education, labor matters, the handicapped, health care, employment, and the arts and humanities.

"These are all important areas of concern for many Mississippians, and I am pleased to have the opportunity of serving on this committee," the senator commented.

He will serve as ranking Republican member of the subcommittee on aging, and will also serve on the handicapped children, family, drugs and alcoholism subcommittees.

He will be the ranking GOP member on the Agriculture Committee's panel on production, marketing and price stabilization, and also will be on the Agricultural Credit and Rural Electrification, and the Agricultural Research, Conservation, Forestry and General Legislation subcommittees.

Cochran was also elected to serve as secretary of the Senate Republican Conference.

Matters of Health

ASTIGMATISM

Q. What is changed in the eye to cause astigmatism? How does astigmatism change the vision?

A. Imagine the perfect eye as a sphere—like half a tennis ball. With astigmatism, the outside of the tennis ball remains round, but the curvature of the cornea is not spherical. The general shape of the eye is round, but small surface areas of the cornea vary from the perfect spherical shape.

Astigmatism blurs the vision because light rays can't be focused clearly on the retina at the back of the eye. A person can have astigmatism with other conditions such as near-sightedness or far-sightedness.

Conventional eyeglasses are used often to correct the effects of astigmatism, but the best choice when astigmatism is severe, is hard contact lenses.

A hard lens can maintain its own shape, and will sit on the eye as a firm film in the irregular spaces.

This allows the vision a person would normally have with almost perfectly-shaped eyes. People with severe astigmatism who have been wearing glasses are amazed at the improvement in their vision when they try well-fitted, hard contact lenses.

Some people with mild astigmatism wear soft contact lenses, however, this type of lens generally is not the best choice for vision correction.

Soft lenses conform to the shape of the eye's surface, so if the surface is not spherical, the lens will be uneven and the vision will remain distorted.

A new lens, however, is now available that combines the benefits of the hard lens and the comfort of the soft lens.

The central part of the lens is a hard contact and gives the wearer with astigmatism the same clear vision as with a conventional hard contact lens.

The outside portion, or skirt, however, is a soft lens. Overall, the lens feels like a soft contact.

Bay police chief announces for sheriff's race

Bay St. Louis Police Chief Ray Murphy, 31, has announced that he is a candidate in the Hancock County sheriff's race.

Stating that Hancock is the fastest growing county in the state, Murphy said, "The sheriff's office must keep ahead of this growth with professionalism, training, and leadership. We need to concentrate more on crime prevention."

"Neighborhood watch, comprehensive drug enforcement, school youth programs, burglary investigation, and efforts to fight child abuse are needed," he added.

"I will continue working closely with state and federal agencies. We stretch our local resources with the help of the FBI, Customs Service, Mississippi Highway Patrol, Alcohol Beverage Control Commission, and others," Murphy pointed out.

"I am a graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi. I received a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from the University of Southern Mississippi. A graduate of the New Orleans Police Academy, Murphy has attended the Jackson Police Academy, and received additional certified training in homicide and fraud investigation, child abuse cases, emergency driving, medical emergency response, firearms, and police administration.

"My record as chief in Bay St. Louis shows that the job can be done. Since assuming leadership of that department, professionalism and training have improved; the city boasts new cars, radios, and uniforms; an extensive neighborhood watch network has been set up; and a fully trained reserve unit is in place. The result is a better crime-fighting force. I know the same results are possible at the county level," Murphy said.

Murphy attended Bay High School, completed Jeff Davis Junior College, and received a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from the University of Southern Mississippi.

A graduate of the New Orleans Police Academy, Murphy has attended the Jackson Police Academy, and received additional certified training in homicide and fraud investigation, child abuse cases, emergency driving, medical emergency response, firearms, and police administration.

He is a certified NRA firearms instructor, and holds the NRA's highest rating as a Distinguished Pistol Expert. Murphy is a seven-year Karate Black Belt.

With an honorable discharge after four years in the military, Murphy began his professional career in 1976 as a patrolman in Bay St. Louis.

He later worked for the Hancock County Sheriff's Office, Waveland's Police Department, and the New Orleans Police.

He served in the Fifth District, the city's highest crime area, where his beat included the Desire Street and Florida housing projects.

Murphy was named Bay St. Louis chief in 1985.

Murphy is a member of the American Legion Post 139, and the Child and Family Life Council of Hancock County.

A native and lifelong resident of Hancock County, he is married to the former Claudia Spotorno. Three of their sons attend North Bay Elementary School; their oldest son is a freshman at Bay High. They are members of Our Lady of the Gulf Parish, and live in Bay St. Louis.

Weekly State Crop Report Week of April 11-17

Rain causes planting delays

MISSISSIPPI STATE—As prime time planting season approaches for the state's major row crops, county Extension agents throughout the state said producers are behind schedule with their field preparation but planting delays are not a problem yet.

In Sunflower County, where producers are expected to plant 45,000 acres of cotton and 33,000 acres of rice, Extension Agent John McCaskill said 80 to 85 percent of the cotton land is rowed up but producers really need another week to 10 days to get fields ready for planting.

"We like to plant cotton during the last week of April and first of May," McCaskill said. "Producers feel like they are behind schedule, but with some good weather the next few weeks planting could begin on time."

McCaskill added that only 18 to 19 percent of the rice land is ready to plant and even though recommended planting dates run into June, producers like to get their rice planted before their cotton.

Producers in Carroll County have 50 to 60 percent of their estimated 15,000 cotton acres ready to plant.

"Producers have been stalled, but were able to really get moving this week," said Carroll County Agent George Alley. "Without any more lengthy rain delays, producers should start planting cotton about April 25."

Alley said a real concern now was the delay in corn planting. Only 35 percent of the county's 2,500-acre crop has been planted.

"Recommended planting dates started March 20," Alley said. "But county producers didn't get to plant any corn until last week."

Tunica County cotton producers have 35 percent of their cotton land ready to plant but are falling behind on their milo planting according to County Agent Dwayne Wheeler.

"Producers are starting planting milo around the end of April, but it looks like they will be behind this year," Wheeler said.

Producers in that county are expected to plant 30,000 acres of cotton and 15,000 acres of milo.

In Marshall County, Extension Agent Ronald Jones said heavy rains have stalled all field work and farmers are anxious to start cotton planting.

Bolivar County Agent Joe Love said about 50 percent of the cotton land in the county is ready to plant and about 35 percent of the milo crop has been planted.

Three Sacred Heart brothers accumulate 100 years of service

Three Brothers of the Sacred Heart in Bay St. Louis are commemorating a total of 100 years of service in the order as the members of the province congregate at St. Stanislaus for their traditional reunion at Easter.

Native New Orleanian Brother Warren Laudumiey celebrates 50 years of profession while Brothers Raymond Sylve and Xavier Werneth each mark 25 years since first vows.

BRO. WARREN LAUDUMIEY

After studying for the priesthood at St. Joseph's in New Orleans, Brother Werneth, son of Bernard L. Landumiey and Stella Gehrmann, both deceased, attended St. Aloysius High School in New Orleans.

In 1962, with 12 members of his novitiate, he took first vows at Molokai, and final vows in 1943 at Bay St. Louis.

Three years later, he obtained a bachelor's degree from Spring Hill College in Mobile, Ala.

For 38 years Brother Warren taught at the Brothers' schools in New Jersey, N.Y., Verdun in Canada, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Alabama, and for a while in Uganda and the Sudan in Africa.

In 1976 Brother Lee selected him to be provincial secretary; he is currently serving in the same capacity for the present provincial, Brother Xavier Werneth.

Brother Raymond Sylve, son of Norris V. Sylve and Nollia Anclade—both deceased, also is a native New Orleanian who attended St. Aloysius before joining the Brothers.

However, he went to Daphne, Ala. for his prenovitiate training before moving north to Belvidere, N.J. for his religious studies, taking first vows there in 1962.

Six years later at Bay St. Louis, he made final vows.

In 1973, Brother Raymond received a bachelor of arts degree from Spring Hill College in Mobile, Ala. His teaching duties were divided between St. Stanislaus High School in Bay St. Louis and Catholic Boys' Home in Mobile.

While in Mobile he served as assistant prefect at the Boys' Home. From 1960 through 1965 he served as prefect at St. Stanislaus.

For years, Brother has been a mainstay of the aquatic sports at

BRO. XAVIER WERNETH

Camp Stanislaus. Presently, Brother Raymond is helping with maintenance at St. Stanislaus and assisting with prefecting.

Brother Xavier Werneth, a native of Mobile, Ala. is the son of Mrs. Maurine Werneth and the late Francis Xavier Werneth.

From McGill High School in Mobile, he entered the House of Studies at Daphne before moving on with Brother Raymond to Belvidere for his novitiate studies. There, like Brother Raymond, he took his first vows in 1962, and in 1968 his final vows at Spring Hill, Ala.

From Spring Hill College, Brother holds a bachelor of arts degree, graduating Summa Cum Laude in 1965, and from LSU in Baton Rouge, a master of arts in 1970.

His teaching duties have been divided between Catholic High School in Baton Rouge and Edward D. White High School in Thibodaux.

He has served as director in both places. While on the teaching faculty at Catholic High, Brother Xavier served as moderator of the yearbook and newspaper staffs and of the student council.

At E. D. White, he moderated the photo club.

In 1983 he was inducted into the Catholic High School Hall of Fame.

Named principal at E.D. White in 1976, Brother was called upon to shoulder various responsibilities in the Houma-Thibodaux Diocese. He was selected first president of the Diocesan Principals Association and was a charter member of the Diocesan School Board.

For outstanding service in the Catholic schools of the diocese, he was the recipient of the First Presidential Award bestowed by the National Catholic Education Association.

That year the Brothers of the Sacred Heart elected him provincial of the New Orleans Province for a three-year term, and also delegate to the General Chapter in Rome.

Three years earlier, Brother Xavier had been elected Second Provincial Councillor.

In 1986, he was elected as a national board member of the Conference of Major Superiors of Men. Currently, he is at Bay St. Louis serving his second term as provincial. At the Liturgy and the Eucharist

Diamondhead Garden Club

By Mrs. Clarence A. Evans

A highlight of the April meeting of the Diamondhead Garden Club was the report on the recent State Convention in Laurel, Ms. given by club president, Joan Keen. She was accompanied by Ethel Evans, corresponding secretary.

Ms. Keen displayed ribbons from the National Council of Garden Clubs which had been awarded for the Flower Show the Diamondhead Club held in conjunction with the Bay-Waveland Club at the county fair.

Committee chairmen's reports included that the recently held Pilgrimage by Lee Fredian. She and co-chairman, Linda Wallace were given a round of applause for a job well done.

Diamondhead Club's way of handling their Pilgrimage is quite unique, and results in a successful and exceptionally well-attended event. After the chairman choose the home to be shown, a co-ordinator for each home is chosen from the membership. She meets with the hostess, determines how many other hostesses will be needed and sets them from the membership. A hostess is then assigned to each home, and all hostesses and co-ordinators make the final arrangements to be displayed in the home where they are working. Another added touch to the Pilgrimage assignment is that there is always a group for the morning hours and another group for the afternoon hours of the tour. Other members of the club furnish sandwiches and cookies for all the hostesses at all homes, including the Community Center, which is the first stop on the tour.

Visitors were introduced by their sponsors, and Virginia Ludwig, membership chairman, introduced four new members which now brings the club membership to its maximum number of 30.

Dot Hickson asked that members of the club join her in a wildflower beautification project; she wants to plant wildflower seeds, and wisteria along the roadways; permission to do so has been given by John Snuggs, state roadside commissioner.

The club also voted to send $25.00 to the wildflower chairman of the Garden Clubs of Mississippi, to be used in their endeavors to plant state roadsides.

Mary Cassia, trees chairman, who has been involved with the project of marking the historic trees in the Diamondhead area, said that the task had been almost accomplished and thanked members and especially willing husbands who had helped.

Boyan Leshin, butterflies chairman for the past two years, brought a box of tiles—one for each member in the club, and each tile had a lovely butterfly painted on it.

Announcements included the meeting of the Gulf Coast Council of Garden Clubs which will be held at the Bay-Waveland Club at the Garden Center on Friday, May 1.

The Spanish Trail District meeting—which includes 40 garden clubs—will meet with the Diamondhead Garden Club as hostess at the Country Club on June 2; a planning meeting has been held for this event.

The Horticultural Summer Seminar to be held at Mississippi State in Starkville was discussed, as the club is offering a young person the opportunity to attend, with all expenses paid. It is an extremely educational/fun event, and well worth any young person's time to be a member of the week-long activities.

The following new officers for 1987-88 were unanimously elected: Betty Claggett, president; Ann Neff, first vice-president; Rose Hobbs, 2nd vice president; Briety Acker, recording secretary; Virginia Valigorsky, treasurer and Ethel Evans, corresponding secretary.

They will be installed in May at the final meeting of the year, a luncheon at the Country Club.

Garden of the Month Award was given to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Knodle; the Commercial Beautification plaque was given to the Diamondhead Coffee Shop, and the Favorite Golf Club Garden to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Alley.

The program was given by a member of the club, Charlotte Partridge, who gave an interesting talk on cacti and succulents. She had on display some 100 or more varieties, and answered the numerous questions that club members asked.

Your old furnace or air conditioner is a big unit and gas furnace is a big expense as they are. Unfortunately, the only thing they seem to eat is money.

Nobody wants energy eaters like them around the house. An electric heat pump is much more energy efficient. It can cool and heat your home more economically. And it can add to your home's resale value.

So stop feeding those dinosaurs. Replace your old air conditioner and gas furnace with a modern energy efficient electric heat pump.

Speaking Oracles of God

By W. Edwin Kearley, Minister

CHRISTIAN VENTURES (No. 5)

The secret of God is characterized by a high plane of living. He is the "salt of the earth" and "the light of the world." (Matt. 5:13-14)

Jesus said, "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." (Matt. 5:16)

The principle of the Christian life is to live in the world and not of the world. It is to live with Christ and not for Christ. It is to live in the world and not of the world. It is to live with Christ and not for Christ.

The Christian character is one derived from God and reflects to God in everything. Christians are called to assume the new habits of grace and goodness. God is known to us through Christ. Therefore in the formation of the Christian character "Christ is all in all." (Col. 3:11) It is nothing else than Christ formed in us. (Gal. 4:19)

In the perfect Christian character Christ's love rules. Paul states the rule. They are "forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against you: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye." (Col. 3:13)

Christ's love motivates. "For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if we died for all, then were all dead." (II Cor. 5:14)

John taught, "And this is his commandment, that we believe on the name of his son Jesus Christ and love one another as he gave commandment." (I John 3:23)

Jesus said, "A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another." (John 13:34)

The tender heart of compassion, the gentle, sympathetic attitude, the lovingkindness, the forgiveness and forgiving are the Christian virtues.

He in whose heart dwells the love of Christ cannot "keep up his compassion" from any other heart of help who need it.

John taught, "But whosoever loveth the world's goods, and loveth his brother's love, and loveth his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?" (I John 4:19)

The Christian cannot be religious, or hard, or unloving. To the Christian, the world is his brother's love, and his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?" (I John 4:19) and intolerant of opposition. The love of Christ will form the disposition of his followers into sweet, gracious, unselfish, loving, and lovable as that of an innocent child. (Matt. 18:1-4)

If you are not a Christian, let Christ become the master of your life. Become a Christian in the same manner as those of the first century. Let the word of God mold your life in the likeness of Christ.
